

The Origins of Disease

The Road to Recovery

Holistic Health Conference – March 18th–20th

Integrating Medicine, Science, Habitat, Ecology, Nutrition & Traditional Wisdom

If our healthcare is so advanced ...

Why aren't we healthier?

Human physiology is governed by fundamental natural laws. Good health—just like bad health—results inevitably from the cumulative effects of the many choices we make each day. Learn how our daily decisions affect our bodies, our thinking, and our emotions. Then you too can choose better physical, emotional, and spiritual health as a foundation for deep and lasting happiness.
